The IACM exists for the purpose of promoting missiological research, studies and educational activities and encouraging collaboration among Catholic missiologists. Although the Association and its members affirm their specifically Roman Catholic identity, the IACM seeks to promote the unity and common witness of all the disciples of Jesus Christ, to foster true dialogue with all people, with their own religious and cultural traditions, and to participate in interdisciplinary approaches to understanding human beings in their relations to God, to each other and to all of God's creation.

The Association is at the service of missionary activity in its specific sense, as it has come to be understood since the Second Vatican Council, without, however, losing sight of the missionary dimension of other activities of the Church.

7th Conference

THIRTY YEARS SINCE
REDEMPTORIS MISSIO & DIALOGUE AND PROCLAMATION

DEVELOPMENTS, FRUITS,
NEW OPPORTUNITIES

21-24 June 2022

Pontifical Urbaniana University, Rome

jointly organised with the

MISSIOLOGY FACULTY

OF THE PONTIFICAL URBANIANA UNIVERSITY

in cooperation with

PONTIFICAL MISSIONARY UNION

CONGREGATION FOR THE EVANGELISATION OF PEOPLES
PONTIFICAL COUNCIL FOR INTERRELIGIOUS DIALOGUE

THE THEME

Three decades later, Redemptoris Missio and Dialogue and Proclamation remain as fundamental pillars of present-day Church's mission. Besides reflecting on how they have inspired missionary activity so far, we wish to reflect on their ongoing validity, asking whether and how they can provide guiding principles as the Church mission responds to new challenges emerging in a rapidly changing world.

THE LECTURES

The LECTURES by specialists from a broad range of ecclesial and academic perspectives, and missionary contexts, will offer abundant stimuli for reflection and exchange. The conference will provide a unique opportunity for missionaries, missiologists, the leadership of the Congregation for Evangelisation of People, the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue and the Pontifical Missionary Union, to reflect together.

THE CONCURRENT SESSIONS

A special feature of the 7th IACM International Conference, the CONCURRENT SESSIONS will give the opportunity to IACM members, missiology students and staff of Urbaniana, as well as other participants, to share their research by delivering short papers by groups of three, followed by time for discussion. To give a paper application is required. Please refer to the IACM website for the relevant details.
